Pet Insurance

Why is lifetime insurance the best for my cat's welfare?

There's no NHS for pets.

If your four-legged family member falls ill, has an accident, or develops a lifelong condition, you'd expect your pet insurance to cover them for as long as they need care. Without insurance, the responsibility for their treatment costs falls entirely to you.

That's why lifetime insurance is different - and that's why it is all we offer. Unlike other policies, lifetime cover ensures your pet is protected for life. So, should they need veterinary treatment, we'll take care of the cost, and you can be there for them.

Our policies provide lifelong vet fees for illnesses and injuries, and providing you renew your policy each year, your maximum benefit will be refreshed, providing cover for ongoing conditions.

So, whatever happens throughout your pet's life, we'll always be here for you and for them.
